

Sharp Clinical Services

Sharp Clinical Services, part of UDG Healthcare plc, has announced that Dave Wilson has joined as Head of Operations based at the Crickhowell site in South Wales.

Sharp Clinical Services, part of UDG Healthcare plc, has announced that Scott Forde has joined as Head of Business Development based at the Crickhowell site in South Wales.

Dave has over 17 years of end to end FMCG operations management experience, including project management, planning, warehousing, despatch and transport. Prior to joining Sharp, Dave worked as an Operations Director for Amcor Flexibles and has previously worked for Unilever and Reckitt Benckiser.

Dave commented “I’m very excited to join Sharp during such an exciting period of growth and evolution. The company has a strong history of growth and excellence in customer service, and I look forward to helping shape the operations of the organisation, to ensure that the future needs of our customers can be delivered.